

MCH Handbook in China

Wang Yan

National center for women and children's health, China CDC

Basic Information

- Every province has provincial MCH handbook
- Various forms and contents
- All cover the basic public health services provided by central and local government
- National MCH Handbook: Dec 2014
- 15 piloting counties of 11 provinces

Process of implementation

- 1996, The Guideline for Women and Children's Health Care
- 2006, MCH Package

- Dec 2014, national MCH Handbook
- Completed in Dec 2015, Piloted since Mar 2016

Good Practices

- Coordination among different departments

```
graph TD; A[Preconception section] --> B[Pregnancy section]; B --> C[Children section]; C --> D[Vaccination section];
```

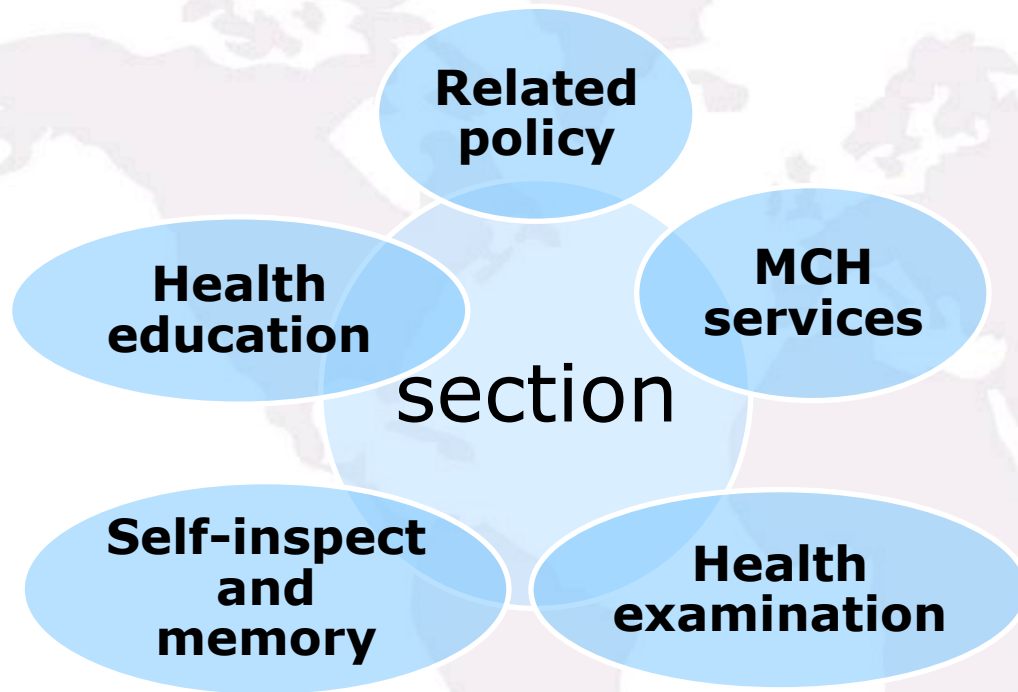

Preconception section

Pregnancy section

Children section

Vaccination section

- Linkage between community health care and hospital/medical care

6个月育儿记录

开始添加辅食的时间: _____月
宝宝会翻身的时间: _____月

会发音和笑出声吗?
会伸手抓物品吗?
还紧握拳吗?
能扶坐吗?

<input type="checkbox"/> 会	<input type="checkbox"/> 否
<input type="checkbox"/> 会	<input type="checkbox"/> 否
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 是	<input type="checkbox"/> 否
<input type="checkbox"/> 能	<input type="checkbox"/> 否

出现灰色的情况请尽早就诊。

Challenges

- Serving for left-behind or migrant children
- Effective use by parents and families of MCH Handbook
- Reflect specific cultural features and meet different demands of different areas

Way Forward

- Chinese national MCH Handbook
- Replace various provincial handbooks
- Digital MCH Handbook and integrate into the national health information system